I. Web Sites

- monergism.com - This is an excellent website containing audio sermons, articles and essays on almost any topic. Monergism describes the position in Christian theology of those who believe that God, through the Holy Spirit, works to bring about effectually the salvation of individuals through spiritual regeneration without cooperation from the individual. Monergism is most often associated with Calvinism. This position is often presented in contrast to Synergism, the belief that God and individuals cooperate for salvation.
- stempublishing.com - Features the complete works of over 20 theologians, and much more.
