

Standing Against the Lies of the Wicked

1. What are some of the things today that seem really backward or upside down?
2. Job is very proud as he will not admit he is wrong. (Yes/No)
3. What was the “narrative” or story that Job is told over and over again?
 - i. God loves him and has a wonderful plan for his life.
 - ii. He is a proud, vile sinner who deserves punishment.
 - iii. He is being tested by God.
4. What is the “narrative” or story we are being told today?
 - i. Christians are to be held in high regard and sought for insight on how we should live.
 - ii. Christians are intolerant, bigoted, and use God as a cover for their hatred.
 - iii. Christians are being tested by God.
5. Today, as with Job, the demand is that we remain silent. (Yes/No)
6. What does the world need to hear most today? _____
7. It’s best to see Job 27:13–23 as the words of Zophar and Bildad and not Job. (Yes/No)
8. As Job’s friends preach judgment, they are warned of coming _____.
9. Those who judge goodness and call it evil will be judged themselves. (Yes/No)
10. We must entrust ourselves to God’s _____ and to God’s _____.