

The Lord Gave, and the Lord has Taken Away

1. How is Job described before his suffering? _____
2. How would you describe him after he lost all that he had? _____
3. We could call chapter 29: "The Lord _____" or "Job's _____"
4. We could call chapter 30: "The Lord has _____" or "Job's _____"
5. Before his suffering, Job was like a king, a chief, a judge, a defender, an advocate... (Yes/No)
6. What does it mean that God loosed Job's cord and humbled him (v. 11)?
  - i. God set him free by loosening the cord (rope) holding him back.
  - ii. God removed the rope supporting Job so that he crumbled like a tent.
  - iii. Other: _____
7. In chapter 30, Job's skin is darkened as he is out in the sun. (Yes/No)
8. What does chapter 29 & 30 teach us about God?
  - i. God gives and takes away as he pleases (he is sovereign).
  - ii. God always acts according to human will or effort.
9. What are four ways in which we can react to the God who gives and takes away?
  - i. We can _____ the sovereign God for personal autonomy or "freedom."
  - ii. We can _____ the sovereign God when his ways are incomprehensible to us.
  - iii. We _____ in the sovereign God as we lament.
  - iv. We _____ upon the sovereign God in hope.