

Giving an Account to God

1. Job is confident to stand before God and give an account to him. (Yes/No)
2. Give at least one verse that teaches that we must give an account to God: _____
3. To show his integrity, Job lists sins that he has turned away from. List them here (you'll need to come back to this question as the sermon progresses):
 - a) _____ (vv. 1–4) b) _____ (vv. 5–8)
 - c) _____ (vv. 9–12) d) _____ (vv. 13–15)
 - e) _____ (vv. 16–23) f) _____ (vv. 24–28)
 - g) _____ (vv. 29–34) h) _____ (vv. 38–40)
4. Knowing the _____ of the Lord, Job made a covenant with his eyes.
5. Job is willing to accept any consequence of his own sin. (Yes/No)
6. Why would Job never oppress another person, even a slave?

7. Job mentions the sun and the moon as common objects of _____.
8. The righteousness Job appeals to is irrelevant since we are saved by grace through faith. (Yes/No)
9. We are saved by our union with Christ through faith? (Yes/No)
10. Union with Christ necessarily produces _____.