

Forgotten Grace

1. Elihu summarizes Job's "attack" against God's justice in this manner:
 - i. Job thinks he is more _____ than God.
 - ii. Job thinks that God doesn't _____ righteousness.
2. By pointing to the clouds, Elihu reminds us of God's _____.
3. Since God is independent, his judgment will always be impartial. (Yes/No)
4. Elihu believes that when God doesn't hear the cries of the oppressed, it is because they are _____.
5. List at least one verse that teaches that God is independent (doesn't need anything from us):
_____.
6. God's independence not only magnifies his justice, it magnifies his _____.
7. The Pharisees thought that grace was scandalous (outraged by an immoral act). (Yes/No)
8. How does seeing God's grace transform us?

9. God hears the prayers of the humble but ignores the prayers of the proud. (Yes/No)
10. Pride is viewing yourself greater than you really are. (Yes/No)
11. Humility is seeing _____ for who you really are before God.