

God of the Storm

1. Elihu is a young, arrogant hothead who misses the point of Job's suffering. (Yes/No)
2. God's greatness is seen in his wisdom and power to control _____.
3. What most impresses you about a storm? _____
4. God speaks out of the storm and to the storm. (Yes/No)
5. The storm fulfills God's purposes in three areas:
  - i. for _____;
  - ii. for _____;
  - iii. for _____.
6. Elihu calls Job (and us) to know and to do. What is the first thing he mentions?
  - i. Know: Know the God of storms is the God of _____.
  - ii. Do: Drop your _____.
7. What two ways does Isaiah say we turn things upside down?
  - i. We say, "He did not _____!" But when we reject God as Creator, we have no sense of justice.
  - ii. We say, "He has no _____." But then fallible and ever-changing human thinking becomes the standard by which we judge God.
8. What is the last thing that Elihu wants Job (and us) to know and to do?
  - i. Know: Know that the God will be revealed in _____.
  - ii. Do: Therefore, _____.
