

Justice, Kingdom, and Christ

Part 4 of 4 in a Series on Justice

1. Isaiah spoke about the servant of the Lord. List at least two things this servant will do.

2. Who is the servant spoken of in Isaiah 42? (and in 49, 50, and 53) _____
3. In Mark 1, Jesus announced the _____ of Isaiah's prophecies.
4. The kingdom of God speaks of _____ rule/reign as king.
5. The parables are meant to teach us about the _____.
6. When Jesus speaks about "coming with the clouds of heaven" he is referring to his second coming. (Yes/No)
7. Jesus didn't establish his kingdom through warfare, but through a covenant brought into effect through his _____.
8. The book of Acts is a history of the growth of the _____.
9. The gospel brings peace with God which leads to peace _____.
10. What three applications are important for us to consider today?
 - i. We are part of _____ today.
 - ii. The advance of the heavenly kingdom brings _____.
 - iii. Christ will _____.