

God Speaks

The answer to suffering and perceived injustice.

1. Circle all the things that were true of Job before his suffering:

Rich Influence Many servants 10 children Much cattle/possessions Righteous/blameless Served God Treated as a king Proud

2. Circle all the things that were true of Job after his suffering:

Ridiculed Accused of great sin Diseased No servants No children
No comfort Homeless Poor No possessions Alone

3. What is Job's greatest source of pain? _____

4. After round and round of speeches, all parties are silent and wait for _____ to speak.

5. A whirlwind refers to a great _____.

6. When God begins and says, "Who is this?", he is mocking Job. (Yes/No)

7. In God's response, Job was commended and rebuked. (Yes/No)

8. When God responds, how many of Job's questions does he directly answer: _____.

9. Complete the following aspects of God's response to Job:

i. God doesn't speak about _____ or _____.

ii. God doesn't defend himself, he _____ himself.

iii. God is capable of creating, maintaining, and _____ the universe.

iv. God has a purpose and plan for _____.