1. Job and his friends have been considering God's wisdom, goodness, and justice as it relates to the problem of suffering. (Yes/No)

2. For each section, list the truth about God we learn from his creatures:
  - i. The Lion and the Raven: God's purposes are _____ and complex.
  - ii. The Ibex: God _____ and _____ what man does not.
  - iii. The Onager: God's _____ extend beyond man's actions.
  - iv. The Aurochs: God _____ the uncontrollable.
  - v. The Ostrich: God has made _____
  - vi. The Horse: God is the source of _____ and might.
  - vii. The Hawk and the Eagle: God directs and commands _____ and deliverance.

3. When suffering seems big and out of control we must remember that God is _____ and in complete _____.
