

Coming Short of Repentance

"Have you an arm like God?" Job 40:9

1. What was Job's response to God's first speech? _____

2. Why did God press Job again with the same lines of his opening speech?
  - i. God is not done embarrassing Job.
  - ii. Job's silence is not true repentance and so God must press further.
  - iii. Job is still hiding secret sins that brought about his suffering.

3. List at least two ways in which we can come short of true repentance:
_____
_____

4. Job wrongly _____ God while angered that he was wrongly accused by his _____.

5. List at least two ways in which we can blame God in seeking to justify ourselves:
_____
_____

6. All sin is ultimately an offense against God. (Yes/No)

7. If we think we can save or justify ourselves, we will never turn to _____.

8. It is important to know that Jesus is both _____ and Savior.

9. The only way to receive mercy and forgiveness from the Judge is to...
_____