

Announcing the Birth of the King

The angelic announcement of Jesus' birth

1. Where do some think that the idea that Jesus was born of a virgin came from?

2. Where does the oldest and closest written resemblance to Jesus' birth come from?

3. Nazareth was a city of great importance and size, a fitting place for a king. (Yes/No)
4. Gabriel came to Mary because she was full of grace and had earned God's approval. (Yes/No)
5. List the six descriptions of this promised child:
 - i. He shall be called _____, Which means: _____
 - ii. He will be _____.
 - iii. He will be called _____.
 - iv. He will receive the _____.
 - v. He will reign over _____.
 - vi. His kingdom will _____.
6. Mary responded like Zechariah—with doubt. (Yes/No)
7. "Overshadow" is an allusion to the Spirit of God descending upon the tabernacle to manifest his presence in a place, now he will be manifest his presence in a _____.
8. Mary is an example of faith as we respond to who Jesus is. (Yes/No)
9. How has God challenged you to respond today?
