

The Beauty of Biblical Sexuality

Taking every thought captive to obey Christ.

Sermon Questions

1. Why is it important to speak truth and risk being offensive? (list at least two reasons)

2. Fill out the three truths we see in Genesis 1:26–28.
 - i. God's _____
 - ii. God's _____
 - iii. God's _____
3. Fill out the truths we see in Genesis 2:18–24. (You'll need to revisit this question to complete it).
 - i. Diversity in _____
 - ii. Equality in _____
 - iii. Union in _____
4. Why is womanhood beautiful? _____
5. Why is manhood beautiful? _____
6. Our goal is to recreate the culture and values before the prevalence of queer theory. (Yes/No)
7. Why is biblical marriage beautiful? _____
8. God's creation was very good but we see the description of its corruption in Romans _____.
9. There is a mass suppression of truth in our world today. (Yes/No)
10. A new humanity is being created through _____.

Discussion/Meditation Questions

1. How does the description of manhood and womanhood in Genesis (and throughout Scripture) challenge your own beliefs and practices?
2. How would you answer the question to a child who asks, "What does it mean to be a man and not a woman," or, "What does it mean to be a woman and not a man"? Does your answer go beyond anatomy? Does maturity in the Christian life look different? In what ways?
3. How should the church handle contentious issues today? What are some dangers to avoid?
4. How can you glorify God in your gender and sexuality? What requires repentance? Growth?