

Woe Canada!

The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me — Jesus.

Sermon Questions

1. Is there such a thing as national sin or sin attributed to an entire group of people? (Yes/No)
2. What does woe mean? _____
3. Of the cities listed, in which did Jesus have his home? _____ (Mk 2:1; Mt 9:1).
4. The point of comparison with Tyre and Sidon is that they were more righteous cities. (Yes/No)
5. When Jesus spoke, there was no _____ for Tyre and Sidon, but there was for the other cities.
6. In verse 16, to hear a disciple is to hear Christ. This teaches us... (circle all that apply)
 - i. to accurately speak about Christ, his sacrifice, and his kingdom.
 - ii. to have confidence that people will hear Christ and follow him.
7. What examples are there to demonstrate that Christ's truth has been made known in Canada?

8. The twelve stones in Israel were set so that _____ might know the mighty works of God.
9. Repentance is the proper response to the announcement of _____.
10. The "woe" against these cities does not eliminate individual _____.

Discussion/Meditation Questions

1. Jot down an outline of the gospel of Jesus Christ considering that the one who hears you hears Christ. Send this outline to another brother and sister in Christ to get feedback.
2. When considering the present state of our country, do you have hope or despair for the future of our nation? Why? How does this affect your actions this week?
3. Read Psalm 1. Does this "blessing" have application to individuals, homes, and nations? Why or why not?
4. What was your most significant take-away from this passage and sermon? Share this with another brother or sister in the fellowship.

Extras for the Children

What song did you enjoy the most today? _____

What did you learn about God today? _____

What words did you not know today? _____

