

What Shall We Do?

“Come, ye sinners, poor and needy, weak and wounded, sick and sore; Jesus ready stands to save you, full of pity, love, and power.”

— Hymn by J. Hart (1759)

Sermon Questions

- Which of the following is the primary aim of the preached Word?
 - The fulfilment of the hearer.
 - The heart of the hearer.
 - The mind of the hearer.
- The Word of God should not be painful in its application to the listener (Yes/No).
- Peter teaches that his listeners must be baptized to be saved (Yes/No).
- The _____ of God is powerfully on display in Peter’s command of repentance.
- Salvation in Christ will come to those who truly repent of their sins (Yes/No).
- Chief to the _____ of God’s _____ in the world is the Christian _____.
- Who is the most influential gospel witness in a child’s life?
 - Their pastor.
 - Their friends.
 - Their father.
- As recipients of the Holy Spirit, Christians are called to take the gospel to the world knowing that the same promises they have received are for others as well (Yes/No).
- Christian engagement of the culture can expect the same results as verse 41 (Yes/No).
- The result of thousands coming to Christ should stoke our desire for _____.

Discussion/Meditation Questions

1. How have you responded to the gospel call of repentance? If you have not yet responded, what are the reasons why?
2. What are some of the necessary cuts the Word of God gives to us as sinful people? Share the last time the Word exposed you for a good ultimate purpose.
3. What are some other texts of Scripture that speak of the influential role of the father? How should fathers in the Lord go about being a conduit of the gospel in their homes?
4. What was your most significant take-away from this passage and sermon? Share this with another brother or sister in the fellowship.

Extras for the Children

What song did you enjoy the most today? _____

What did you learn about God today? _____

What words did you not know today? _____

