

Glorify God in Your Body

You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

Sermon Questions

1. In today's text, who is saying "All things are lawful for me"?
 - a. Paul
 - b. Jesus
 - c. The Corinthians
 - d. Peter
2. In time this was written, it was thought that the wise and ruling could do whatever they wish (Yes/No).
3. As long as something is not sinful, it's a good thing to do (Yes/No).
4. Jesus declared all foods clean so what we eat doesn't matter to who we are as Christians (Yes/No).
5. Why does our future resurrection matter for what we do now?
 - a. It doesn't.
 - b. Our bodies are going to be with us forever, we should take care of them now.
 - c. If we don't treat our bodies right, God will not raise us from the dead.
6. To flee sexual immorality is to take this sin seriously (Yes/No).
7. "Everything in moderation" is a good phrase to live by today (Yes/No).
8. What are the reasons in these verses that show who we are and why we should run from sin and use our bodies for God's glory?
 - a. Our bodies will be raised.
 - b. Because sin is bad, so stop it.
 - c. Our bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit.
 - d. We've been bought by God with the blood of Jesus Christ.
 - e. We are part of a special union with Christ.
 - f. Because the Bible says so.
9. Are you ready and willing to live in and use your body for God's honor and praise? (Yes/No/Not sure)