

Glorifying God in Singleness

Marriage isn't promised to any of us. It's not a reward for attaining any special level of Christianity. At the end of your life, our reward isn't a husband or wife or having children. Our reward is eternity with Jesus Christ!

Sermon Questions

1. In this verse the unmarried and widows are only referring to widowers and widows. That is, people who were married but their spouse has died. (Yes/No)
2. It's good to be single. (Yes/No)
3. Single people have more difficulty serving the Lord than married people. (Yes/No)
4. Our culture today encourages singles to spend time on:
 - a. Facebook
 - b. Themselves
 - c. Serving others
 - d. Getting ready for marriage
5. Feeling sorry for yourself is a temptation singles face. (Yes/No)
6. How can someone be content in singleness?
 - a. Long for marriage.
 - b. Just be tough and deal with it.
 - c. Remember the gospel and be devoted to Jesus Christ.
 - d. Have good friends instead of a spouse.
7. Self-control is only commanded for single people. (Yes/No)
8. You should get married if self-control is difficult. (Yes/No)
9. The most important thing to look for in a future spouse is?
 - a. Their looks.
 - b. Their education. Do they have a good degree?
 - c. Their job. Do they earn enough for a nice comfortable life? Maybe a house?
 - d. Their holiness. Do they know and love God? Can you tell?
10. "Seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you."

Where is this verse found? _____