

Fathers, This Is Your Command!

Sermon Questions

1. Do men still have the responsibility to lead, protect, and provide for their families? (Yes/No)
2. To "not provoke your children to anger" means:
 - a. Give them whatever they want so they don't cry.
 - b. Do not behave sinfully as to cause them to be angry or resentful.
 - c. Do not poke them till they are angry.
3. What are some ways that fathers can provoke their children to anger?
 - a. Rigid Rules. Rules that deal with _____ apart from shepherding the heart.
 - b. Selfish Showcase. Wanting obedience so fathers don't look _____.
 - c. Power Play. Abusing _____ and strength.
 - d. Erratic Expectations. _____ what is expected and what is punished.
 - e. Double Standard. Expecting greater _____ from children than from himself.
4. Discipline and instruction are used to describe an education that is Christ-centered. (Yes/No)
5. Christian education focuses on behavioral change. (Yes/No)
6. Pop Quiz: In one sentence, write the gospel:

7. How does the church relate to this command to bring up children in the Lord:
 - a. The church should handle the bulk of the Christian education for children.
 - b. Father's must do all the work.
 - c. The church should help in every way possible families to raise their children.
 - d. The church should start a school to train children.
8. List three things that you feel are most important to fulfill this command to bring children up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord:
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____