

Remembering God in Times of Change

Sermon Questions

1. We aren't the nation of Israel and we didn't wander in the desert for 40 years, but the words of Deuteronomy 8 were recorded for our instruction. Where does the Bible say this? _____
2. The first ten verses of Deuteronomy 8 recount important lessons that God wanted to teach the people. These lessons are:
 - a. A call to _____
 - b. A call to _____ on God
 - c. A call to trust God for _____ grace.
3. The first ten verses recount God's testing in the wilderness, the last ten verses anticipate God's testing in prosperity. (Yes/No)
4. Prosperity can expose a heart that has wandered from God. In what ways does this passage teach this?
 - a. Prosperity can reveal a forgetfulness of _____.
 - b. Prosperity can reveal _____.
 - c. Prosperity can lead to _____.
5. Considering the lessons taught in the wilderness wanders and the test of prosperity, what sin is exposed in your heart?

6. What are the three things we need to do to remember God in times of change?
 - a. Take in the _____.
 - b. _____.
 - c. Trust God enough to _____ and _____.
7. On the back of this sheet, write out a plan of how you are going to cultivate knowledge and faith in God.

My Goals for 2017

My goal is to be consistent in my intake of the word of God and to labor in prayer, to the end that my affections for God increase to produce steadfast faith, joy, loving obedience, and worship.

My reading strategy: _____ (e.g., M'Cheyne's 1-Year Reading Plan)

When do I plan to read? _____ (e.g., 6:30 am)

Where do I plan to read? _____

How will I worship? _____

How will I pray? _____

With whom will I share this with? _____