

The New Covenant: Man Won't, God Will

In the old covenant the people said, "We will!" and they failed. In the new covenant God says, "I will!" and they are saved.

Sermon Questions

1. On a scale of 1 to 10, how would you grade your knowledge of the new birth.
(1 = no knowledge at all, 10 = thorough knowledge)
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
2. When God says, "I will," those statements can be put into three categories:
 - i. He will put his _____ into his people's _____.
 - ii. He will be their God and all his people will _____ him.
 - iii. He will be merciful and _____ their _____.
3. When you think of the old covenant, you think of:
 - i. Moses.
 - ii. The 10 commandments.
 - iii. Temple, sacrifices, and lots of rules.
 - iv. Other: _____.
4. If the 10 commandments were more prominent today, would our society be more moral? (Yes/No)
5. If the church were more faithful today, would our society be more moral? (Yes/No)
6. What are the two main differences between old covenant and new covenant law?
 - i. Christ fulfills many of the laws. E.g., _____.
 - ii. The law is no longer external but _____.
7. How is the law written on human hearts? Through the _____ (Ezekiel 36:22–27).
8. What are three key vital signs that the Spirit has written God's law upon the heart?
 - i. _____
 - ii. _____
 - iii. _____
9. When considering responses to this reality some are deceived, some despair, and others delight. Where do you find yourself today? And what are you going to do about it?

