

The New Covenant: Forgiveness that Forgets

I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.

Sermon Questions

1. The purpose of God's covenants is to establish a _____ between himself and his people.
2. The old covenant was broken by God's people. The new covenant then, promises three things that ensure it will be unbreakable covenant. What are these three promises?
 - i. God will write his law _____.
 - ii. Everyone will _____ the Lord.
 - iii. Sins will be _____.
3. What is sin? _____
4. What are four common ways in which the problem of sin is dealt with?
 - i. Deny the problem of sin by denying _____.
 - ii. Deny that we are really that _____.
 - iii. We _____ others or God.
 - iv. Deny that sin is the real _____.
5. God's solution to sin is _____.
6. What does forgiveness have to do with the new covenant? Three things are mentioned:
Hint: Use these words to help: covenant, Lord's Supper, succeed, debt, knowing God
 - i. Forgiveness of sins is included in the terms of the covenant because the covenant is guaranteed to _____.
 - ii. The in the new covenant the reminder of the _____ (rather than animal sacrifice) reminds us that sin's debt has been paid.
 - iii. The goal of the covenant (which is _____) can only be achieved through the forgiveness of sin.