

When You Die...

It has been appointed for man to die once, and after that...

Sermon Questions

1. Bonus: Who are the only two people in history that have never died? _____
2. How often do you think of your own death? (circle one below)
Not at all Not very often Often All the time
3. Why are "heaven tourism" books or near-death-experiences not reliable to tell us about what happens after we die?
 - i. Near death is not the same as _____.
 - ii. People's experiences _____.
 - iii. They all contradict the _____.
4. Why can we trust the Bible? (circle all that apply)
 - i. Jesus trusted it and he actually died and came to life again.
 - ii. Historical, archaeological, and eye-witness evidence.
 - iii. Its transmission in a multiplicity of manuscripts ensured its preservation.
 - iv. Fulfillment of prophecy.
 - v. The self-attestation of Scripture seen in its peculiar glory revealed through the Holy Spirit.
5. People say we die, then comes bliss and rest. The Bible says we die, then comes _____.
6. Judgment is a fearful thing because we are _____.
7. In Jesus' first coming he _____ the sins of many.
8. In Jesus' second coming he will _____ those eagerly waiting for him.
9. So death is real, judgment is real, and Jesus is coming again. Are you ready? Are you ready for death? Are you ready for judgment? Are you reading for his return? (Yes/No/Not Sure)

If you are not ready, what must you do?
