

Family Religion

The Christian Home: Part Three

Sermon Questions

1. A church that does not read the Bible, pray, or worship in song is not a Christian church. (Yes/No)
2. The sermon today is divided into three sections:
 - i. The _____ for family religion.
 - ii. The _____ of family religion.
 - iii. The _____ for family religion.
3. List some of the key texts demonstrating family religion in the Bible:
 - i. Genesis _____
 - ii. Deuteronomy _____
 - iii. Joshua _____
 - iv. Psalm _____
 - v. Ephesians _____
4. What are four necessary elements to family worship/religion:
 - i. _____ Scripture;
 - ii. _____;
 - iii. _____; and
 - iv. _____ or catechizing.
5. Remember that brevity, regularity, and flexibility are keys to success in this endeavor!
6. List the motivations to pursue family religion given in the sermon:
 - i. Love for self, spouse, and _____
 - ii. _____
 - iii. _____
 - iv. Love for _____

The following resources are helpful guides in the area of family worship:

Books

Family Driven Faith, Voddie Baucham

Family Shepherds, Voddie Baucham

Family Worship, Donald Whitney

Resources for Reading the Bible

Long Story Short, Marty Machowski (guide through the Old Testament)

Old Story New, Marty Machowski (guide through the New Testament)

Exploring the Bible, David Murray

Journey through the Bible, Scott Brown

Egermeier's Bible Story Book (a good story book Bible for young children)

A Bible Reading Plan

Resources for Teaching the Bible to Children

The Baptist Catechism for Children

The Ology, Marty Machowski

Pilgrims Progress, John Bunyan

Leading Little Ones to God, Schoolland

The Biggest Story, DeYoung

Big Truths for Young Hearts, Ware (designed for ages 10+)

Resources for the Teen Years

This Changes Everything, Crowe

Don't Waste Your Life, Piper

Just Do Something, DeYoung

Pilgrims Progress, John Bunyan

Sex Is Not the Problem, Joshua Harris

Radical, Platt

Christian Beliefs, Grudem

Why Trust the Bible, Gilbert

Who Is Jesus?, Gilbert

What Is the Gospel?, Gilbert

When People Are Big and God Is Small, Welch

Christian biography and history are other excellent resources!