

Be Content With What You Have

Learning Christian contentment in prosperity.

Sermon Questions

1. Learning to be content with what you have is only for poor people, not people who have money.
(Yes/No)

Prosperity: Having money beyond the basic needs of food and clothing.

2. Why is contentment more difficult in prosperity?
- i. Prosperity brings many _____.
 - ii. Prosperity allows us to feed our _____.
 - iii. Prosperity brings _____.
 - iv. Prosperity can lead us away from _____.
3. What is Christian contentment?
- i. To be content means that one knows what they _____.
 - ii. To be content means that the value of prosperity is measured in its _____ to God.
 - iii. To be content means that one knows the temptations of prosperity but are still able to _____.
 - iv. To be content means that one is able to _____ with his riches.
 - v. To be content means that one's prosperity leads him to _____.
4. How can you be content? (circle one)
- i. Be thankful that you have more than others.
 - ii. Be thankful that you have something.
 - iii. You have to, or else you're sinning.
 - iv. Remember that God is with you.
5. Put the following summary in the right order:
- _____ You will seek what you believe to be your greatest need—either God or money.
 - _____ See that God, not money, is your greatest need.
 - _____ If God is your greatest need, then knowing that he is with you will bring contentedness and freedom from love of money.
6. List one reason why we should see God as our greatest treasure:
- _____