

From Heaven to Earth and Back

Again: The Story of Jesus

Philippians 2:5–11

hu·mil·i·ty a modest or low view of one's own importance

Sermon Questions

1. When does Jesus story begin? _____
2. What does Jesus empty himself of?
 - i. Jesus gave up his divine attributes (those qualities that make him God)
 - ii. Jesus gave up the independent use of his attributes becoming completely subject to the Father.
 - iii. Jesus gave up his glory, veiling it in human form.
3. What would be hard for you to give up? _____
(How does it compare to what Jesus gave up?)
4. Jesus came to earth, not just as a man, but as a _____.
5. Who is it that God has called you to serve? _____
(consider family, friends, church, etc)
6. Serving others is hard. Jesus served in difficult ways—he gave up his life! What do you think was most difficult for him to go through? _____
7. Those who humble themselves before God will be _____.
8. The way up for the Christian is down. (Yes/No)
9. Will your story be intertwined with Jesus story? (Yes/No/Not Sure)