

The God Who Sends Suffering

How then shall we respond?

Sermon Questions

1. Before today, are you already familiar with the story of Job. (Yes/No)
2. Job will be our greatest focus as we consider the book of Job. (Yes/No)
3. What is the doctrine of retribution?
  - i. If you are good, you'll receive good. If you are bad, you'll receive bad.
  - ii. God's judgment just before Christ's return.
  - iii. God knows all things.
4. The "sons of God" refer to angelic beings. (Yes/No)
5. What does Satan think of Job? _____
6. If you lost everything like Job, what would be the most difficult for you to lose?
_____
7. Who is the blame for Job's suffering?
  - i. Satan
  - ii. Job
  - iii. God
  - iv. Other: _____
8. Which of these statements is not true:
  - i. An all-good God would not allow the innocent to suffer evil.
  - ii. The innocent suffer evil.
  - iii. Therefore, God is not all-good.
9. Did Job know the reason or purpose for his suffering? (Yes/No)
10. When we suffering, we must have a _____-life trust in God who is all-good, all-powerful, and all-wise.