

The Wisdom of Death

“Remember that my life is a breath...” (Job 7:7)

Sermon Questions

1. How difficult is it for you to hear counsel or instruction? _____
2. Job admits that his lament was wrong and that he shouldn't have done it. (Yes/No)
3. What is the only thing that Job thinks will bring him relief? _____
4. Job's biggest complaint about his friends is that they are without _____
5. Why are Job's friends like streams in the desert?
  - i. They are a source of refreshing for the weary.
  - ii. They allow the desert to flourish with plants.
  - iii. They are unreliable and bring disappointment when they are dried up.
6. Job's friends wouldn't even look at him when they spoke to him. (Yes/No)
7. What is a danger in giving counsel to those deeply suffering?
_____
8. Are you shocked by how Job speaks to God in chapter 7? (Yes/No)
9. What is the challenge for those who aren't following Christ?
  - i. Remember the imminence of your own _____.
  - ii. See in _____ the one who forgives our sin and grants us hope.
10. What is the comfort for those who are following Christ?
  - i. Death reminds us of our hope as _____ of God.
  - ii. In the plan of God, suffering is not without _____ but is used to bring us to God.

For lunch discussion:

What challenged you in today's passage?