

Suffering and Accusing God of Injustice

Sermon Questions

1. Have you ever experienced such suffering that you questioned the goodness of God? (Yes/No)
2. What is one way we could respond when faced with the problem of evil?

3. As we listen to Job, Job is questioning the _____ of God.
4. Job wishes he could take God to court. (Yes/No)
5. What are the two main reasons that Job thinks a trial between him and God would be unfair?
 - i. Job is no _____ for God.
 - ii. God is _____.
6. Job thinks that he has never sinned. (Yes/No)
7. What two things does Job mention seeking to prove that God is unjust?
 - i. Natural _____.
 - ii. _____ people.
8. Hopeless in a trial with God. Hopeless to follow the counsel of his friends. What is Job's last hope?

9. There is much suffering in this world that we do not understand. (Yes/No)
10. Who is the soul-satisfying answer to the problem of suffering and injustice? _____
11. When we see and experience suffering we should:
 - i. Remember that God had a glorious purpose for the greatest act of evil ever perpetrated.
 - ii. Remember that God has a glorious purpose for all evil.
 - iii. Take comfort that God, in his wisdom and power, will ensure justice and rescue his people.