

No Other Hope

Though he slay me, I will hope in him—Job 13:15

1. Job's three friends have all spoken. Their conclusion: Job is suffering because of his own _____.
2. In chapter 13, Job seeks to defend his desire to argue his innocence before God. He will do this in two ways:
  - i. Their course of action is _____ (vv. 4–12).
  - ii. There is no other _____ (vv. 13–18).
3. What three things can we learn from Job's rebuke/warning to his friends?
  - i. Be mindful that those who give counsel _____ to God for what they say.
  - ii. Be more concerned of what _____ thinks of you than what _____ think of God.
  - iii. Be _____ in the whole counsel of God.
4. Job 13:15 shows Job's unwavering trust in the mercy and grace of God in his suffering. (Yes/No)
5. What three things can we learn from Job's hope to argue his case before God?
  - i. God may put us in circumstances where we have _____.
  - ii. We must approach God with an attitude of _____.
  - iii. Our only argument before God is _____.
6. All the lessons of this sermon flow from being mindful of one truth: The _____ of God!
