

The Two Witnesses

What witness will you listen to?

1. Job sees himself in a legal battle, seeking to clear his name and end his suffering. (Yes/No)
2. Does Job see his friends are comforters or accusers: _____
3. Who does Job see as the one behind all his suffering? _____
4. What is the witness against Job?
 - i. His friends.
 - ii. His words.
 - iii. His suffering.
5. What does this witness against him speak of?
 - i. Job's guilt.
 - ii. Job's sin.
 - iii. God's wrath.
 - iv. God's judgment.
 - v. God's injustice.
6. Is this witness against Job right? (Yes/No)
7. If no, what is the prime example that this witness is not true? _____
8. Who is the heavenly witness that speaks for Job?
 - i. His friends.
 - ii. An angel.
 - iii. God himself.
9. What is an example of an earthly witness that speaks against you?

10. It's not what the world thinks of you, it is what _____ thinks of you.
11. What does your witness in heaven speak for you?

12. Job's hope was shrouded in mystery causing him to despair again. Why is our hope sure?
