

The World Is Not the Way It Should Be

A plea and search for justice

1. The world is not the way it should be. Do you agree? (Yes/No/Not sure)
2. Job's friends argue that justice is present in the world; everyone reaps what they _____.
3. Job's complaint to God is that the wicked _____, while the righteous _____.
4. Job gives five reasons to prove his complaint:
 - i. Exhibit A: The _____ of the wicked (vv. 7–16).
 - ii. Exhibit B: The wicked are not _____ swiftly (vv. 17–21).
 - iii. Exhibit C: The wicked and the _____ die together (vv. 22–26).
 - iv. Exhibit D: The righteous are treated as the _____ (vv. 27–28).
 - v. Exhibit E: In death, the wicked are _____ and _____ (vv. 29–34).
5. Is Job right in his complaint? (Yes/No)
6. As we consider the testimony of Scripture, how is Job's complaint answered? (list the three truths)
 - i. _____ has entered the world.
 - ii. _____ is delayed.
 - iii. This is not the end of the _____.
7. What should be your response in light of Christ and his truth?
